REVEREND LAURENCE P. DOLAN APPOINTED USD CHAPLAIN

RELEASE THURSDAY, JUNE 13

San Diego, California

The appointment of the Reverend Laurence P. Dolan as Chaplain and Director of Campus Ministry of the University of San Diego has been announced by President Author E. Hughes. The appointment is effective September 1, 1974.

The Reverend John Myhan, present USD Chaplain, will be stationed at a parish in Oregon.

Father Dolan is a member of the Religious Studies department at the University. He was born in San Diego. He attended St. Augustine High School and graduated from USD in 1962.

After obtaining his B.A. from the College for Men, he attended the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome where he obtained the postgraduate degrees of S.T.B. (1964) and S.T.L. (1966). He was ordained to the priesthood in Saint Peter's Basilica on December 18, 1965.

After serving as associate pastor at St. Charles Church, Imperial Beach, California, from 1966 to 1968, he was assigned to the Religious Studies Department of the University of San Diego. In 1970 he began his studies for the Ph.D. in theology at the University of Ottawa, Ontario, Canada. In 1973 he returned to the University of San Diego to resume his work with the Religious Studies department. He is also Member of the Priesthood Commission of the Diocesan Synod.

Father Dolan belongs to the following professional organizations: American Association of University Professors, American Academy of Religion, American Society of Christian Ethics, Canon Law Society of America, Catholic Theological Society of America, College Theology Society and Society for the Scientific Study of Religion.
